IN SEARCH OF THE REAL "American Idol"

by Doug Lucas, Founder and President, Team Expansion

Here in the USA, if we mention the term "idol worship," some might think of singing competitions. But in much of the world, idol worship has little to do with bus tours and hit songs. Some years ago, I stood in a Buddhist temple in Asia, watching in disbelief as worshippers of all ages rubbed the body parts of a large wooden dog, hoping to receive special powers. Back in Old Testament times, God instructed the people of Israel to burn idols. (See, for example, Deut. 7:5, 25.) Missionaries today sometimes end up recommending the same practice. Terry and Amy are Team Expansion workers sent in partnership with Northside Christian Church in New Albany, Indiana. They serve in Ghana and they have just helped a West African man named "Paul" as he burned his idol, accepted Christ, was baptized into new life, then baptized his family members.

Because these practices (burning one's idols) are so uncommon in the USA, we cover them in training programs here at Emerald Hills. In fact, Terry and Amy recently received training here on handling these very issues in conjunction with multiplying disciples and churches.

> Today, Paul and his family of new believers are especially thankful that Terry and Amy took this training. We, in turn, are grateful to you and others for making it all possible. We invite you to pray and partner with Team Expansion in sending workers like Terry and Amy to unreached peoples throughout the globe. May God reign over the idols in all our lives today and forevermore.

FIELD HIGHLIGHT

by team in Taiwan

Nine years ago, Team Expansion missionaries, Dave and Brenda Atkin, started the first Sports and English Camp in Taiwan. Since then Sports and English Camp has had a big impact on the youth who attend and on the staff that help pull it off.

This year's theme was, "Not a Fan," adapted from Kyle Idleman's book. The goal was to encourage the youth to be committed followers of Jesus, not just fans. At the end of last year's camp there were around 60 youth who wanted to make a commitment to transform Taiwan. Thirty-six of those students returned to camp this year and were used as Transform group leaders for the week. Every morning before breakfast the Transform leaders met with 2 or 3 other students and lead them in Bible study and prayer. They also met after the evening sessions to answer questions and talk about the message that was presented. These groups were very effective because they empowered the group leaders and also encouraged the campers to have deeper discussions.

By Friday night there were 20 youth who made decisions to follow Jesus, 8 of which received parental permission to be baptized the following day!

PRAY WITH US

- Give thanks & praise God that nearly 800 intercessors have enlisted in the Team Expansion Prayer Force.
 Ask the Lord to continue to raise up prayer warriors that would number 1000+! Sign up at www.teamexpansion.org/pray
- Celebrate the results of summer outreach programs & events that took place in various parts of the world this past summer. Seeds were sown in creative access country; 8 Taiwanese were baptized at the 9th annual Sports & English camp; VBSs make inner city children eager to learn more about Jesus. Pray that God would multiply His church worldwide & continue to send out His message of Hope to the lost.
- Give thanks & praise God for the protection of harvest workers. Trains, planes & automobiles wreck, crash, or even disappear so it is vital that we continue to pray for safety of workers who travel all over the globe.
